

2021 ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERSRULES OF CONDUCT

Welcome to S&P Global Inc.'s 2021 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Annual Meeting"). We are holding a virtual-only meeting due to ongoing public health concerns related to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. In the interest of a productive and orderly meeting, we ask that you abide by the following Rules of Conduct:

1. The only business matters to be conducted at the Annual Meeting are the matters set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders and the Proxy Statement dated March 29, 2021 (the "Notice").
2. The business of the Annual Meeting will be taken up as set forth on the Agenda. When an item on the Agenda is before the meeting for consideration, discussion will be confined to that item.
3. Because this is a meeting of shareholders, only shareholders of record on March 22, 2021, the record date, or their duly authorized proxies, are permitted to vote and submit questions at the Annual Meeting.
4. To vote and submit written questions during the Annual Meeting, shareholders must login as a "Shareholder" and provide their unique 15-digit control number and the meeting password SPGI2021, as prompted. A shareholder may choose to attend as a "Guest" in "listen-only" mode, but will not be able to vote or submit questions during the Annual Meeting. To access the Annual Meeting online, please go to <http://www.meetingcenter.io/283714745>. The meeting number is 283714745.
5. Shareholders may vote during the Annual Meeting by selecting the link to "Cast your Vote" on the virtual meeting website, which will be available until the polls close immediately after the presentation of the matters for shareholder consideration.
6. We welcome questions from shareholders. Shareholders of record with a control number will have the opportunity to submit questions both prior to and during the Annual Meeting.
 - a. Shareholders may submit questions in advance of the Annual Meeting by emailing their question(s) to the Corporate Secretary at corporate.secretary@spglobal.com no later than May 4, 2021. Please label your email with "Annual Meeting Questions" in the subject line and provide your name and 15-digit control number in the body of the email. Shareholders may submit questions during the Annual Meeting on the virtual meeting website. To do so, please log into the virtual meeting website using your 15-digit control number and submit your question(s) by selecting the dialogue icon in the upper right corner of the meeting center screen and entering your question(s) in the field provided.
 - b. For all shareholder questions, please provide your name, location (city and state) and organization, state whether you are a shareholder yourself or represent a shareholder, and, if applicable, the specific proposal to which your question relates. In order to facilitate responses and discussion, each question should be succinct and limited to one topic.
7. In order to answer as many shareholder-submitted questions that comply with these Rules of Conduct as time permits, substantially similar questions may be summarized and grouped together to provide a single response and avoid repetition.
8. Shareholders' views and comments are welcome, but the Chair will not address questions that are:

- a. Not directly relevant to the business of the meeting;
- b. Related to material non-public information of S&P Global, including guidance or other forward-looking financial performance information;
- c. Related to pending or threatened litigation or regulatory proceedings;
- d. Repetitious of statements already made by other persons;
- e. Derogatory references to individuals or that are otherwise disrespectful;
- f. Personal in nature;
- g. Unduly prolonged (i.e., longer than one minute); or
- h. Out of order or not otherwise suitable for the conduct of the Annual Meeting, as determined by the Chair or Corporate Secretary in their reasonable judgment.

Additionally, the Chair will stop discussions relating to proposals that were not previously submitted properly under SEC Rule 14a-8 or in accordance with the Company's by-laws.

9. The proposals for shareholder vote will be considered sequentially in the order they are set forth in the Notice. During the presentation of shareholder proposals, shareholder proponents (or their representatives) will be provided an opportunity to present their proposal telephonically live during the Annual Meeting. Proponents or their representatives should restrict their comments to the shareholder proposal being presented. Proponents or their representatives are required to limit the introduction of their proposal and any additional remarks to three minutes following the Company's invitation to proceed.
10. In the event of disorder, technical malfunction, or other significant problem that disrupts the Annual Meeting, the Chair may adjourn, recess, or expedite the Annual Meeting, or take such other action that the Chair determines is appropriate in light of the circumstances. In such case, please stay connected to the virtual meeting website for at least 15 minutes. If the disruption persists and the online meeting has not resumed at such time, additional information may be found on the Company's Investor Relations website at www.spglobal.com/proxy.
11. Recording of the Annual Meeting is prohibited. S&P Global will webcast the Annual Meeting and a replay of the Annual Meeting will be available on our website for one year from the date of the meeting.

We appreciate your participation and your fellow shareholders will appreciate your courtesy in observing these Rules of Conduct.
